RECH'S INSANITY PLEA.—Harry Molan, a young man who has been incarcerated in the May's Landing, N. Y., jail on a charge of assault, was temporarily released a few days back that he might visit his sick wife, who is dangerously ill. Nolan occupied a cell at the county jail adjoining that in which John Rech, the self-confessed murderer of his alleged wife was confined, and had frequent conversations with Rech, during which the latter said his plea of defense would be temporary insanity. This, the murderer said, was due to a knowledge that the woman was intimate with men whom he knew. Rech further said that on the evening of the tragedy he heard a noise downstairs. He went down and found his wife, as he said, about to go out. He demanded to know where she was going, and she told him she was going to live with another man. He upbraided her and a violent quarrel followed. It was at this point, Rech alleges, that he became temporarily insane and committed the crime. Nolan says that Rech is by no means morose or melancholy, but on the contrary, is quite cheerful, smoking and laughing as if liberty rather than the hangman's noose awaited him.

Every woman should have and read Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a great book of a thousand pages, profusely illustrated which will be sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay for mailing only. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

WHIRLED BY A TIDE RIP.—A "tide rip" phenomenon of the sea was encountered in the Indian Ocean recently by the ship Francis, which arrived at Philadelphia recently. The tide ran in many directions, apparently at almost the same time, and the big ship was whirled around by it like a top, or took peculiar and erratic sheers, until she became uncontrollable and could not be kept on her course. It was feared at times that she would go to pieces, for the tide seemed to increase in force. For fourteen hours the Francis was at the mercy of this peculiar action of the ocean currents, and soon afterward a cyclone struck and partially dismantled her.

FAMILY OF MISFORTUNES.—A remarkable succession of misfortunes occurred recently in the Irving family of Oldtown, Me. Not long ago the old homestead burned down, leaving the family with but a shed for shelter. Two of the sisters moved into a store and started a millinery business. The store was burned down and they lost all they had. Soon after that three women members of the family were thrown from a boat in Pushaw stream, directly opposite their home, and drowned. A week or so since two other sisters belonging to the family were murdered in Oldtown.

As baldness makes one look prematurely old, so a full head of hair gives to maturity the appearance of youth. To secure this and prevent the former, Ayer's Hair Vigor is confidently recommended. Both ladies and gentlemen prefer it to any other dressing.

Electric Bitters.
Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted disease. It is more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1 per bottle at Ernest L. Allen's Drug Store.

"I could not to Misfortune."
I was afflicted with catarrh last autumn during the month of October I could neither taste or smell and could hear but little. Elly's Cream Balm cured it.—Marens Geo. Shauz, Rahway, N. J.
I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Elly's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren avenue, Chicago, Ill.
